Evaluate only the TA (s) with whom you attended discussion section and/or office hours.

good

Good economist and instructor.

Good

I attended Stephen's section.

When I attended discussion I found it helpful when we were able to ask questions and he extended it to the class to ask questions. He has made numerous adjustments and even offered a review session before the final, so I am very grateful for that.

He really simplified the information in lecture. Everything was clear, and he was open to any questions we had for him.

The TA was very good at breaking down topics and made it easier to understand them. The only thing is that the TA was not very stimulating, but I do understand that teaching a bulky subject at 9 PM does affect this aspect.

Good.

Che was very knowledgeable and answered all questions.

Nice person :D

Che explained topics from lecture with more depth and it helped retain and better understand the material.

Did well during the times I attended. Attendance wasn't mandatory so I can't speak about it consistently, but he does know the content.

Always offered additional materials and advice on how to study for exams.

I only attended Che Sun's office hours and they were very helpful. They almost felt like lectures and I was able to pull away more of an understanding of a topic. He was responsive to questions and made sure that the student was prepared for the test.

Willing to help and responsive to questions! I only attended Che's sections.

He was helpful in clearing up any confusion in the material being taught.

He went over problems clearly and directly.

I attend TA Che Sun's sections this quarter and benefit a lot from them . He is patient and gives clear and effective sections. In most cases, he will summarize the main points from lectures, and when it comes to exams, he helps us to do some preparation or analysis. He knows all the knowledge covered in classes well and explains every point in detail, and his notes are clear and well organized, which is easy to follow. During these sections, he frequently stops and asks for our feedback and has plenty of interactions with us.

He was very good at VERY helpful. Che is the MAN.

Che was responsive to questions and concerns I had in a timely manner.

The TA was helpful in discussion and I think he provided great examples.

Che did a good job working through problems related to the previous lecture.

Che Sun

You are really helpful during discussions, and you make discussions really fun and enjoyable.

Christina was amazing! Great at presenting complex information in an easy manner.

The notes were super helpful for review.

Che has been an amazing TA for us, more than we could ever ask. He is always willing to help and really care about our success in class. We are all super grateful we have him as our TA.

no more

Che is the best. TA of the year or something.

Good

Thank you for all of your help this quarter

Because the lectures became very bulky with concepts and ideas due to the fact that we fell behind schedule, the TA made it easier to understand these concepts during our discussion.

:DDD

Made sure to address any questions we had on the test. Che also did an excellent job explaining concepts learned in class.

Great job.

The TA was very knowledgeable and was able to take the topics and break it down into digestible information for the student. He was also good at working with the professor during lecture to make sure students questions were reviewed and looked at.

Kind and helpful!

Che was a very effective TA for this class.

I appreciate Che's willingness to help in office hours. He always helped clarify any subjects or material I had questions on. He's a great TA.

He was fine all around

Che was a great TA, I'm really surprised it was his first time teaching! He was very helpful in going over the main concepts of the course and clarifying what we needed to know for midterms or what we did wrong on midterms. He is very approachable and a cool person to talk to. He was also helpful in office hours. Che brought energy to discussions even though they were at 6pm and was always smiling! Thank you for a great quarter Che! :)

Christina was a wonderful TA! She evaluated our understanding of the course material and our needs from discussion at the end of every discussion section and adapted as such to give us the best experience possible. I attended almost all of the sections and they proved to be very helpful for the homework and for the exams.

Christina did amazing! The materials she generated and posted were incredibly helpful and she was really really helpful in office hours.

They were helpful and always available when students needed

Reviewing was easy because of the notes.

Christina was great! She explained problems very well in discussion and was eager for feedback as to better help us. They made incredible handouts that were very helpful.

very good TA, make everything very clear, give good practice exercises, help to solve PbSets, make good midterm reviews and give helpful resources to practice!

It would be helpful to call on a variety of students to work on problems during lecture and encourage questions/discussion. Also would focus on high level concepts when answering questions in class.

I would like more practice problems during lecture so it reinforces the material in my head.

Although I didn't ask many, I appreciate that there was always room during class to ask questions. The class is fast paced and it definitely helps to be able to clarify things.

Che sun is a nice teacher on ECN001A. Che's voice is high and small, which gives me a bit of trouble hearing. However, She is active in replying the email and answering questions in class. For another, her homework focus on motivating students' economic logic. She encourages students to use their economic knowledge in their life, not limited to economic questions. In conclusion, I want to say, although her lecture quality is not as good as other teachers, she tries hard and does perfectly on the rest, like homework, office hour, and communication. The rest part is more meaningful than only a high-quality class.

If I can give a grade to Che sun, I will give her A- to A.
